

Welcome to My School

General Information

Start off by writing about where your school is, its history, size and so on.

What part of the country is your school in? Is it in a large or small town? Are there any famous places nearby? Write about where it is.

When was your school opened? Do you know who built it?

Do you have a school song or school logo etc? Explain what they mean.

Have any famous people gone to your school? What about your own parents?
